Midlands Community Foundation Raises
More Than $42,000 at its 2018 Golf Tournament

Papillion, Neb., June 4, 2018 – Midlands Community Foundation raised more than $42,000 at its 2018 golf tournament at Platteview Golf Club on Monday, May 21. The tournament was sold out with 148 golfers participating.

At this year's tournament, donations were awarded to Big Brothers Big Sisters of the Midlands, Fontenelle Forest, HELP Adult Services, Papillion Volunteer Fire Department, Project Harmony and Share A Fare, Inc.

“We are pleased to provide funding to these worthwhile non-profit organizations which will enable them to continue their missions and to create productive and valuable changes in our community,” said Tonee Gay, Executive Director.

The mission of Midlands Community Foundation is to benefit the diverse needs of the Sarpy and Cass county communities by providing financial support, involvement and service. Over the last 30 years, the Foundation has served as a leader by helping to identify community needs and partnering with corporate and individual donors to make the most of their charitable dollars. The Foundation has a strong commitment toward prevention and education in the areas of health, art, culture, community, education, economic development and human services.
